UCR

Prescription Drug Offenses

The following File Class, Property Class, etc., should be used in incidents involving prescription drugs.

Scenario One:

An Offender is in possession of a forged prescription note from a doctor's office and attempts to pass it at the pharmacy and the pharmacist knows it was not from a doctor and calls the police. Police arrive and arrest the offender before any transaction has been made for the prescription.

File Class:	25000, Counterfeiting/Forgery
Arrest Code:	2589, Forgery (Other)
Property Loss Type:	3 – Counterfeited/Forged
Property Class:	22 – Non-negotiable instruments
Property Value:	0

Scenario Two:

An offender enters a pharmacy with a forged prescription and passes the forged prescription to the pharmacist and receives the drugs. Later, police arrest the offender.

	File Class:	25000, Counterfeiting/Forgery
AND	File Class:	26001, Fraud-False Pretense/ Swindle/Confidence Game
	Arrest Code:	2589, Forgery (Other) AND 2699, Fraud (Other) – only one sent to MICR
	Property Loss Type:	3 – Counterfeited/Forged
AND	Property Loss Type:	7 – Stolen
	Property Description:	22 – Non-negotiable instruments
AND	Property Description:	10 – Drugs/Narcotics
	Property Value:	Item #1 – 0
		Item #2 – Value of the drugs would be the amount of what it would cost someone to get the prescription(s).